

Group Needs Organizer for this Culture: _____

Family or Clan structure	Role of the Chief	Role of Elders	Role of Shaman
Describe the way the society is organized. Identify the major family groups or clan groups. Do they use animals to identify the groups? What status do children have in this society? When does a person become an adult?	Who gets to be the chief? Are only men powerful in this culture or do women have leadership roles?	What abilities and influence do the older people have in this culture? What responsibilities and rights do adults (men and women) have?	Does this culture use a medicine man or shaman? What special powers or influence does this person have?

Consequences of European and First Nations Interaction for this Culture: _____

Economic impact of Fur trade	Spreading of European Diseases	Converting to Christianity	Other (tools, weapons that were shared?)
Did my culture participate in the fur trade	Did my culture suffer from European diseases, like small pox, that were spread after contact? What happened to the people?	Did the people of my culture get converted by European missionaries to Christianity?	What types of special tools or weapons did this culture receive from Europeans? Did this technology help their lives or cause pain and suffering?

Physical Needs for First Nations Culture: _____

Food	Shelter	Clothing	Technology
How did the climate and location of this culture affect the types of foods they could eat? How did they ensure they got the correct nutrients to stay healthy?	What kinds of materials were available in their location to build shelters? How did they stay warm and dry?	What type of clothing did they require to survive in their location? What were their clothes made from?	What types of special tools or inventions did this culture create to survive in their location?

Psychological Needs Organizer for this Culture: _____

Spiritual Beliefs	Their view of Nature	Famous Art Work styles	A Creation Myth
Describe the major religious beliefs of this culture. Is there a single creator or a group of powerful spirit beings? Do the people have to go through a major ceremony as part of growing up?	Describe the way this culture existed with Nature (hunting, fishing, farming, wood-cutting). Did this culture try to protect the natural world or try to use it for its resources?	Is there a recognizable art form that this culture is known for? What artists can you name?	How did the world begin according to the traditional beliefs of this culture? How did these people arrive in their lands according to this culture?